

Wyoming to Washington - The Best Comes to the West

Ken McNabb Clinic 2009

Location: Clinic 2009 will be at the Tacoma Unit, Spanaway, Washington

Date: October 15-16-17, 2009 - Thursday, Friday, Saturday

8:00 am - 12:00 pm "Practical Horsemanship"

*$475.00 - Limited to 10 riders

*includes free auditing of the afternoon session

- Groundwork: does your horse follow your lead?
- Saddle: Communicating with seat, hands & feet. Suppling: Giving to the bit
- Poll & head elevation - developing softness - stopping with softness
- Collected movement - forward and back
- Lateral movements: shoulders, hip, side pass
- Smooth snaffle bit highly recommended during clinic
- No stallions

1:00 pm - 7:00 pm "Advancing Your Horsemanship"

*$700.00 - Limited to 10 riders

*Includes free auditing of the morning session

- 3 hours dry work/ 3 hours cattle and ranch work
- Warm up for Performance -Diagonal work - spins - rollbacks - lead changes - adding speed and rating

To ensure the quality and complement the Clinic experience for all advancing session riders, we request you have ridden or studied horsemanship with Ken McNabb or trained at a similar level. Having a well-developed and confident ability to achieve all the maneuvers stated in the 'Practical Horsemanship' morning session is essential, as well as all horses must be conditioned for the duration of this event.

Please contact Terri Cook for a riding evaluation form to assist you in making this decision. No stallions.

Public Auditing will be offered @ $25.00 per day or $ 60.00 for all three days in advance. Youth and groups - call for discounts.

Deposits must be called in directly to Ken McNabb's office:
Brenda Nelson @ (307)645-3149

Riding level forms and questions: Terri Cook tlcook54@juno.com (360)445-2503

There will be a 10% discount for 50% deposits received before January 31st, 2009